

Art Guides

21 Gallery Shows You Won't Want to Miss in New York This Fall, From Amy Sherald's Star Turn to a Historic Cuban Artist's US Debut

Here's a taste of what's opening this season in the Big Apple.

Caroline Goldstein & Sarah Cascone, September 3, 2019

"Lili Jamail: Rollercoaster" at Team Gallery September 5–October 5

Lili Jamail, Ellee Lisa (2017). Courtesy of Team Gallery.

New York-based photographer Lili Jamail's intimate works straddle the genres of landscape and portraiture and are described by the gallery as "conveying the calm before the storm, or the stunned silence that follows." The show's title, "Rollercoaster," also nods toward extreme moods, but also towards excitement and frivolity.

Team Gallery is located at 83 Grand Street.