

Event listings, interviews,
previews, reviews,
critics' picks and more

This Week

FEBRUARY 19-26

- 47 Around Town
Brooklyn's biggest Roller Derby fan
- 54 Museums
Ricky Powell ponders a new Magnum show
- 59 Art
Review: John Waters at the New Museum
- 67 Books
The best blogs for book lovers
- 71 Clubs
- 75 Comedy
- 79 Dance
Art and dance merge in Love Storyless
- 83 Film
Secret Things director Brisseau
- 101 Gay & Lesbian
Perverted pop from the Isotoners
- 104 Kids
- 105 Music
Dave Grohl's all-star metal project
- 125 Classical & Opera
- 129 Sports
- 131 Theater
A community theater thrives in Brooklyn
- TIME IN
- 145 Television
- 148 Radio
- 149 Video & Games
- 150 Technology
Rookie robot builders compete in FIRST

Smells like art

Slater Bradley's new solo show, "stoned & dethroned" at Team Gallery, pays homage to Nirvana frontman Kurt Cobain. The show features images of frequent Bradley collaborator Benjamin Brock (pictured) "channeling" the doomed rock icon, as well as video footage of actors portraying the members of Nirvana. See Art, page 64.